- 7.2.4. A Junior Associate Member shall not have any right of voting nor shall he/she be eligible as a member of Council, but he/she shall be entitled to participate in District Meetings, General Meetings and attend Technical Visits as arranged by the Association.
- 7.2.5. A Junior Associate Member, on ceasing to be employed in mining, shall automatically cease to be a member of the Association unless the Council decides otherwise.
- 7.2.6. A Junior Associate Member shall cease to be a member after three years if he/she has failed to pass his/her Mine Manager's certificate.

7.2.7. The annual subscription for Junior Associate Member shall be decided by the Council each year.

7.3. ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

- 7.3.1. Any person who is the holder of a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for Metalliferous mining shall be eligible for Associate Membership of the Association, provided that his/her position and qualifications are such as to warrant in the opinion of the Council his/her admission as an Associate Member.
- 7.3.2. In addition, any person who is not a holder of a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for metalliferous mining but in the opinion of Council adequately satisfies the following requirements may be admitted as an Associate Member:
- 7.3.2.1. He/she is in the employ of an enterprise servicing the metalliferous mining industry.
 - 7.3.2.2. He/she holds a senior position of responsibility and decision-making within that enterprise.
 - 7.3.2.3. He/she holds acceptable qualification(s) other than a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for metalliferous mining.
- 7.3.3. Every applicant for Associate Membership shall be sponsored by two Ordinary Members of the Association in writing.
- 7.3.4. Final approval for membership will be at the discretion of the Council.
- 7.3.5. An Associate Member shall not have any right of voting nor shall he/she be eligible as a member of the Council, but he/she shall be entitled to take part in all discussions at District Meetings, General Meetings and other activities as arranged by the Association.
- 7.3.6. An Associate Member, on ceasing to be employed in the mining industry, shall automatically cease to be a member of the Association unless the Council decides otherwise.
- 7.3.7. The annual subscription for Associate Membership shall be decided by the Council each year.

7.4. ORDINARY MEMBERS

- 7.4.1. A candidate for transfer from Associate Member or election to the class of Ordinary Membership must satisfy the following conditions:
- 7.4.1.1. He/she shall be the holder of a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for Metalliferous mining issued in terms of the Mine Health and Safety Act (Act 29 of 1996).
 - 7.4.1.2. He/she shall be in employment on a working metalliferous or diamond mine.
 - 7.4.1.3. He/she shall be the General Manager (MHSA 4.1 appointee) or a Mine Manager (MHSA 3.1.a appointee) of such mine or hold a position equivalent thereto.
 - 7.4.1.4. He/she shall meet at least three out of the following four criteria:
 - 7.4.1.4.1. Mine based.

- 7.4.1.4.2. The principal decision maker with respect to operations.
 - 7.4.1.4.3. Legally appointed or have a legally appointed person reporting to him/her.
 - 7.4.1.4.4. Operations should be primarily underground.
- 7.4.2. The candidate shall if so required satisfy the Council that the position referred to in Clause 7.3.1.3 “hold a position equivalent thereto” carries a degree of authority and responsibility sufficient to warrant his/her admission to this class of membership.
- 7.4.3. Any person appointed in terms of Clause 7.3.1.4 who is not the holder of a Mine Managers Certificate for metalliferous mining may only be admitted as an Ordinary member of the Association at the discretion of the Council.
- 7.4.4. Ordinary members in excess of one per mine shall be nominated by the General Manager (MHSA 4.1 appointee) of the mine concerned.
- 7.4.5. Any Ordinary Member having been admitted to this class of membership and being transferred to a Group Head Office or the Minerals Council South Africa, may retain this class of membership at the discretion of Council.
- 7.4.6. The annual subscription for Ordinary Members shall be decided by the Council each year.
- 7.4.7. In addition to the annual subscription referred to in Clause 7.4.6, the Council shall have the power to levy on each Ordinary Member a personal subscription which shall be paid into a Special Account as provided for in Clause 13 of the AMMSA constitution.
